

Size 12 was responsible for over 13% of the variance* in units in this department indicating that it was the most unavailable size in the department

Variance = absolute value of difference between demanded and shipped units.
This variance signifies demand that was not fulfilled.*